Attributes of Money in which Speculation is Acceptable in the Islamic Jurisprudence "A Jurists Comparative Study"

*Ibrahim M. Al-Jawarneh **

ABSTRACT

This study tackles the subject of "Attributes of money in which speculation is acceptable in the Islamic Jurisprudence "Fiqh" "A juristic comparative study. It is a very important topic as speculation companies are of the most important companies in the Islamic Economical system, Its main aim is to eliminate and get rid of the contemporary probate- based economical systems. This study amiss to:

1. Verify the meaning of speculation through mentioning its various definitions (Hanafy, Maliky, shafi' and Hanbaly), so that the meaning presented would be complete and comprehensive.
2. As money is the pillar of the economical system in general and the speculation companies in particular, it is vital to show the attributes of money. In which speculation is accepted beginning by gold and silver, passing on the false kinds of the, then raw- gold, jewelry and flicker, banknotes and ending by offers.

Keywords: Speculation Attributes of Money, A Juristic Comparative.
