Desire (A Thematic Study to the Quranic Term)

*Mohsen S. Al-Kalidi

ABSTRACT

This research entitled (Desire: A Thematic Study to the Quranic Term) is regarded as a step towards the objective explanation of the Holy Qur'an, and it introduces a term which is mentioned repeatedly in the verses of the Holy Qur'an, that is (one's inclination). The term shows the linguistic meaning for its various derivations, and then shows the meanings of (one's inclination).

The term has different connotations according to specialization and concern of those who study it. Moreover, the research introduces the meanings which have been carried by the concept in its various derivations in the light of the contexts of the Holy Qur'an.

But the general meaning of the term in the Holy Qur'an is: one's inclination as opposed to the religion. The research is ended by mentioning anecdotes and notes which are picked up from the context of the term in the Holy Qur'an in various forms.

Koywords: Quranic Term, Desire.
